ANALYSIS PREPARED BY THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Statutory authority: Sections 196.02(3) and 227.11(2), Stats.

Statutes interpreted: Sections 196.14, 196.24(3), 196.26 to 196.30, 196.33, 196.39, 196.72, and 196.795(9), Stats., and, generally, ch. 196, Stats.

This revision updates and revises the rules relating to practice and procedure before the Commission. This rule also creates procedures for the confidential treatment of records.

The rule establishes processes for filing documents with the Commission, including provisions for facsimile filing, and establishes the number of copies to be filed. The rule identifies persons that need to be served with documents in proceedings and proper methods for service. The rule describes how time is to be computed for determining when a filing or an event is to take place. The rule creates a process for requesting an enlargement of time.

The process for opening dockets by the commission is established in the rule. A docket may be opened at the Commission's own motion or at a person's request. Under the rule, a person may make a request to open a docket by filing an application, petition, or complaint. The rule eliminates the distinction between, and the processes for, the handling of "formal" and "informal" complaints.

If the commission decides to open a docket, it issues a notice of proceeding or notice of investigation. The current rules do not describe how dockets are opened.

Like the current rule, this rule describes who may be parties in a proceeding. The rule establishes the standards that are to be met in order to become a party by right or a party by permissive intervention. The rule repeals the previous distinction between a "limited" and a "full" intervenor.

The rule identifies the role and authority of the administrative law judge presiding at a proceeding and retains the provision from the current rule that commission staff do not appear in a proceeding in support or opposition to a position, but only to discover and present information pertinent to the proceeding.

The rule eliminates specific provisions that detail particular aspects of hearings, such as rules for prehearing conferences, appearances, order of presenting evidence, changes in the time or place of hearings, conduct of hearings, briefs, and transcripts.

The rule revises processes for filing motions, conducting discovery, reopening proceedings, and for requesting interlocutory review by the Commission of rulings of the administrative law judge.

The rule retains provisions requiring notice to customers when a utility requests a general rate increase and provisions requiring a hearing if a utility wishes to abandon facilities or discontinue service. The rule repeals outdated provisions relating to motor carrier authority applications and provisions relating to municipal acquisition proceedings.

The rule also creates a process for a commissioner to request a synopsis or summary of evidence pursuant to s. 196.24(3), Stats. Under the rule, commission staff will prepare a synopsis or summary of the evidence if requested by a commissioner. Parties have the opportunity to respond to the synopsis to add or correct facts.

This rule creates a process for obtaining a designation of confidential status. Under the rule, a determination on whether information shall be treated confidentially shall be made at the time the information is given to the Commission. Under previous Commission procedures, if a person filing a document sought confidential treatment of information in the document, the filer could do so by identifying the grounds under which confidentiality could be granted. The Commission would accept the filing, but the acceptance did not constitute a determination that public access to the information would not be permitted. The Commission would determine if confidential status should be granted when a request for that information was made by another person.

Under this rule, a person who wishes the Commission to keep confidential information in the possession of the Commission, or requested by the Commission, must make an application for confidential status. The application must identify the information for which confidential treatment is sought and identify the authority under which confidential status should be granted. Within 21 days after receiving an application, the Commission may seek additional information from the applicant, if needed, to make a confidentiality determination. The applicant must respond within 30 days to the information request.

The Commission will make a determination on a confidentiality request within 30 days of receiving the additional information or within 30 days of the filing of the application if no additional information is needed. The determination will specify what, if any, information is given confidential treatment and the basis for that determination.

The Commission will give the applicant written notice of its determination. The Commission shall post all determinations regarding confidentiality on its website and may give other appropriate notice. If an applicant is authorized to file information confidentially in the context of a Commission proceeding, the applicant shall serve a copy of the determination on all persons listed on the service list for that proceeding.

TEXT OF PROPOSED RULE

1 copy of the request on the person named, in the manner provided in s. 801.11, Stats., for service
2 of a summons.

3 (5) RESPONSES. No person may file a response to a request unless the commission requests or

6 NOTE: It is not necessary to file a request to open a docket in order to seek 7 information or assistance from the staff or in order to bring any matter to the
8 commission's attention. This section is intended to retain the substance of format
9 rule s. PSC 2.10(1), except that there no longer are "formal investigations." As 10 provided in new s. PSC 2.05, a person may request or the commission on its own
11 motion may open an investigation, a proceeding, or another docket. The

(4) OTHER DOCKETS. In dockets other than proceedings or investigations, the commission's notice may include any information pertinent to the docket.

PSC 2.07 Application for Rate Increase; Notice to Customers. (1) NOTICE OF

APPLICATION FOR RATE INCREASE. (a) When a public utility applies for a general revision of rates, which, if authorized, would result in a rate increase, the public utility shall inform each affected customer of the filing of the application and the general nature and effect of the filing.

(2) MUNICIPALITY EXCEPTION. Notwithstanding sub. (1) (b), a municipal utility serving fewer than 1,000 customers may elect to post notice of the information in sub. (1) (a), if the notice is posted in at least 3 public places at locations and in a manner likely to give notice to customers affected and the notice is posted within 7 days of the utility filing its application.

(3) NOTICE OF HEARING. (a) A public utility subject to sub. (1) (a) shall notify each affected customer of the hearing regarding the utility's application for the revision of rates. The notice shall include, at a minimum, the date, time and place of the hearing, and information regarding how customers may contact the utility to confirm the hearing schedule. (b) Except for a municipal utility that may provide notice under sub. (2), if a public utility cannot provide 10 days notice by means of a bill insert, the utility shall inform its customers by a special

1 mailing or a display advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the utility's service
2 area.

9 following:

11 service is to be discontinued, as well as the location of all actual or potential customers affected
12 by the proposed action.

17 (1) APPLICABILITY. This section applies to requests made to the commission to treat as 18 confidential information in possession of the commission or being requested by the commission.

19 (2) RESPONSIBILITY FOR ESTABLISHING CONFIDENTIALITY. The burden of establishing the need
20 for confidential treatment of any information shall be on the person requesting confidential
21 treatment of the information.

1   (3) APPLICATION FOR CONFIDENTIAL STATUS. Any person seeking confidential treatment of
2   information shall file with the commission a written application for confidential status containing
3   in affidavit form all of the following:

4   (a) The name and address of the applicant.

5   (b) The name and position of the individual filing the application.

6   (c) The specific type of information for which confidential status is sought.

7   (d) The facts and supporting legal authority believed to constitute a basis for obtaining
8   confidential treatment of the information.

9   (4) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION. (a) Within 21 days after receiving a complete application, the 10   commission shall mail to the applicant a list of written interrogatories the answers to which are 11   necessary for a determination under this section. If a confidentiality determination can be made
12   solely on the basis of information appearing in the application, the commission may waive
13   written interrogatories.

14   (b) If an extension has not been granted and if the applicant fails to answer all the interrogatories
15   within 30 days after the date the commission mails the interrogatories, the commission shall 16   deny the application. The commission may also deny the application if the applicant fails to 17   provide the information requested in the interrogatories.

18   (c) The responses to the interrogatories shall be treated as confidential if the applicant submits a
19   request for confidential treatment of the responses.

20   (5) DETERMINATION. (a) Within 30 days after receiving a complete application if interrogatories
21   are waived, or within 30 days after receiving the information requested in the interrogatories, the

1 commission shall issue a written determination on the request for confidentiality. The
2 determination shall include all of the following:

- 3 1. A finding which identifies the type of information sought to be assigned confidential status.
- 4 2. A determination of whether the commission has the authority to compel submittal of the 5 information if the commission requested the information.
- 6 3. If the authority exists, a determination of whether the commission is authorized by law to 7 assign confidential status to the type of information at issue.
- 8 4. The decision to deny or to grant the request in whole or in part.

9 (b) A determination to assign confidential status shall be made pursuant to one or more of the 10 following:

- 11 1. Section 196.14, Stats.
- 12 2. Section 196.72, Stats.
- 13 3. Section 196.795(9), Stats.
- 14 4. Upon a finding consistent with the ruling in State ex rel. Youmans v. Owens, 28 Wis.2d 672, 15 (1965) that confidential treatment of the information is in the public interest.
- 16 5. Other specific statutory or common law right to confidential treatment of information.

17 (c) A determination made pursuant to par. (b)4. shall also include answers to all of the following
18 questions:

- 19 1. How many people have knowledge of the supposedly “secret” information? Will disclosure 20 increase that number to a significant degree?
- 21 2. Does the contested information have any value to the possessor? To a competitor? Is that 22 value substantial?

3. What damage, if any, would the possessor of the secret suffer from its disclosure? What advantages would its competitors reap from disclosure?

4. What benefits are likely to flow from disclosure? To whom? Are they significant? In this connection, what is the public “need” for disclosure? Can it be satisfied in any other way?

(d) 1. The commission shall notify the applicant in writing of the determination. The commission post on its internet website a list of all determinations made under this section and may provide any other notice it considers to be appropriate.

2. If information that is granted confidential status is filed in conjunction with a commission proceeding, the applicant shall serve a copy of the determination on all persons listed on the service list for the proceeding, and shall file proof of service with the commission.

(6) INTERIM CONFIDENTIAL STATUS. Information for which confidential status is requested shall not be open to public scrutiny until 40 days after issuance of the determination.

(7) CONTESTED CASES. In any contested case hearing before the commission, the administrative law judge, in determining the merits of a request for confidential treatment of information which arises during the course of the hearing, may render a ruling on the request only after receiving answers to the questions appearing in sub. (5) (c) 1. to 4.
